

Need2Done — Customer Damage and Liability Policy

Last Updated: October 2026

1. Overview & Purpose

This Policy sets forth the limits of responsibility, inspection procedures, and liability compensation standards for physical damage, loss, or service deficiency occurring during task execution on the Need2Done ("N2D") platform.

2. Intermediary Status & Merchant Disclaimers

- Third-Party Goods: Need2Done is a technology aggregator facilitating delivery and domestic assistance. We do not manufacture, inspect, warrant, or directly package merchant items (medicines, prepared food, packaged groceries, retail goods).
 - Manufacturer Warranties: Defects, shelf life, seal integrity, and manufacturer warranties remain the sole responsibility of the merchant/manufacturer.

3. Transit Damage & Loss Coverage

1. Couriers & Custom Work: If an item is lost or physically damaged during transit due to proven gross negligence of the assigned delivery partner:
 - The customer must report the incident within 12 hours of delivery with photographic evidence and purchase invoice.
 - Following investigation, Need2Done may reimburse the direct repair cost or depreciated fair market value of the item, subject to a maximum liability cap of ₹2,000 per order.
 1. Fragile & High-Value Items: Transport of fragile glass, jewelry, fine art, or electronics valued above ₹5,000 is undertaken at the customer's sole risk unless agreed in writing with special handling.

4. Home Services Property Protection

1. Inspection Prior to Service: Customers are advised to point out delicate surfaces, antique fixtures, or pre-existing damage prior to the start of cleaning/domestic chores.
 1. Accidental In-Home Damage: If a service partner accidentally causes damage to customer property during an authorized home service session:
 - The customer must notify Need2Done support within 24 hours before any third-party repairs are undertaken.
 - Following verified inspection, compensation or repair facilitation is provided up to a maximum cap of ₹5,000 or 5x the service booking fee (whichever is lower).
 - Need2Done does not cover pre-existing wear and tear, superficial staining on aged materials, or unverified claims.

5. Maximum Liability Cap

Except where prohibited by mandatory Indian law, in all disputes, Need2Done's total aggregate financial liability across all claims shall never exceed the platform convenience fee received for the specific transaction.
