

Need2Done — Customer Damage & Liability Policy

Last Updated: October 2026

1. Purpose & Scope

This Policy establishes the protocols, limitations, and compensation frameworks governing physical loss, package damage, or personal property incidents occurring during task execution on the Need2Done ("N2D") platform.

2. Customer Responsibilities & Packaging Standards

- Proper Packaging: The sender/customer is strictly responsible for securing fragile, liquid, or delicate items in appropriate protective packaging (bubble wrap, leak-proof containers, sturdy boxes).
 - Disclosure of Fragile / High-Value Items: Customers must clearly inform the Helper and indicate special handling instructions before transit begins.
 - Prohibited High-Value Items: Need2Done does NOT provide high-value cargo transport. Uninsured items with an individual value exceeding ₹10,000 (e.g. expensive jewelry, high-end laptops, unaccounted bullion, original deed documents) must NOT be dispatched via standard courier errands.

3. Damage Inspection & Reporting Protocol

1. Reporting Window: Any damage, leakage, or loss must be reported within 12 hours of delivery via the WhatsApp Bot (Support -> Report Damage) or email to support@need2done.com.
 1. Evidence Required:
 - Clear high-resolution photographs/videos of the damaged item and packaging before and after delivery.
 - Original merchant purchase invoice or proof of value.
 - Order ID and Helper details.

4. Assessment & Liability Caps

Following investigation:

- If the loss or damage is proven to have occurred solely due to direct negligence or reckless handling by the Helper during transit:
- Need2Done will facilitate mediation with the Partner or provide a compensation voucher up to a maximum cap of ₹2,000 or the invoice value (whichever is lower).
- Exclusions: Need2Done is not liable for:
 - Inherent vice, pre-existing internal mechanical failures, or packaging inadequacy.
 - Losses resulting from accidents caused by third-party vehicles or force majeure events (floods, landslides, civil unrest).
 - Damage to prohibited items transported in violation of our Prohibited Tasks Policy.
